

Step to connect with VS Code server

1. open the vs code apps

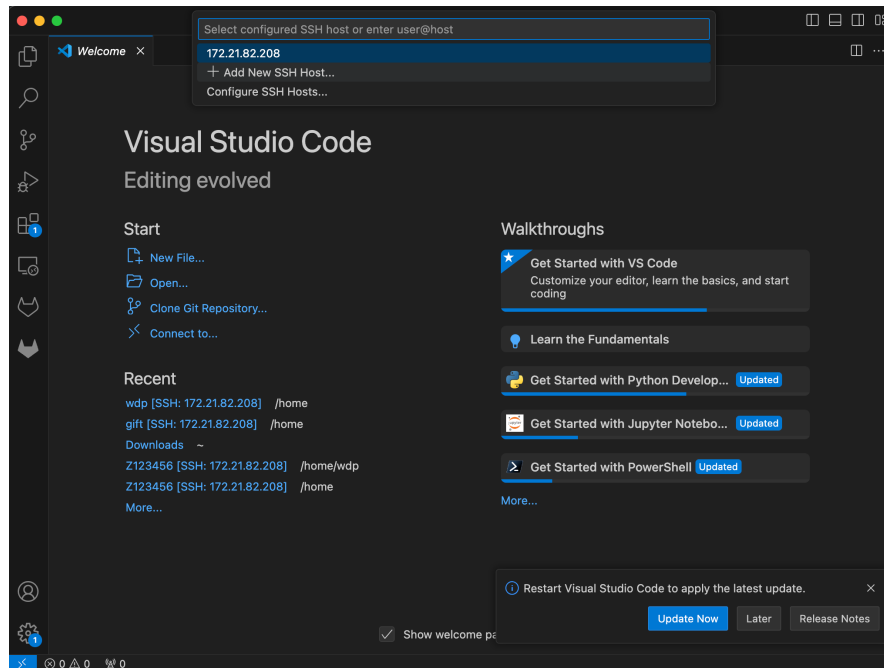

Chose the red circle to open connection with the host

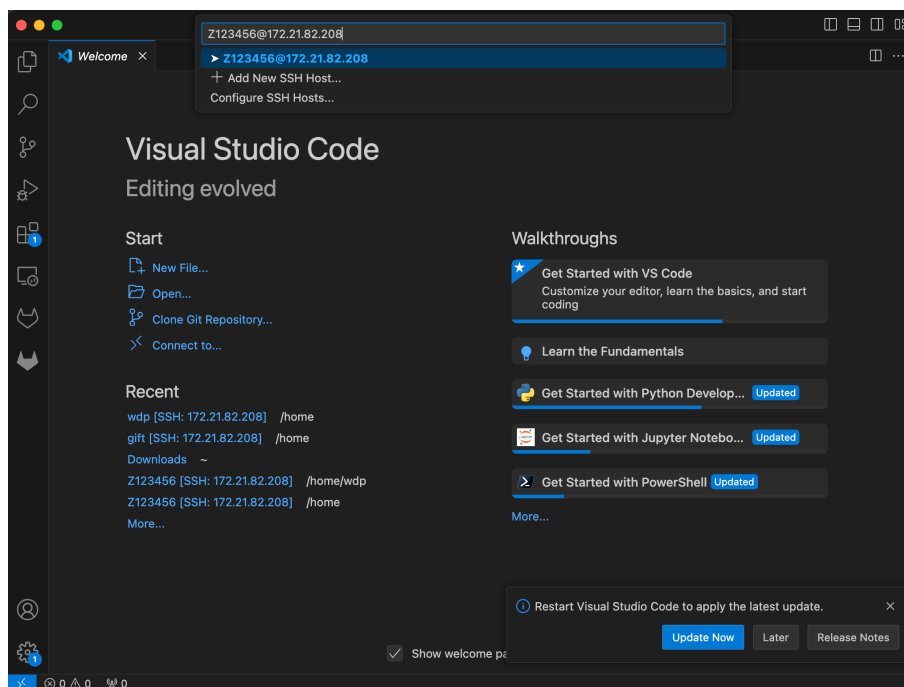

2. Choose connect to the host on the red circle

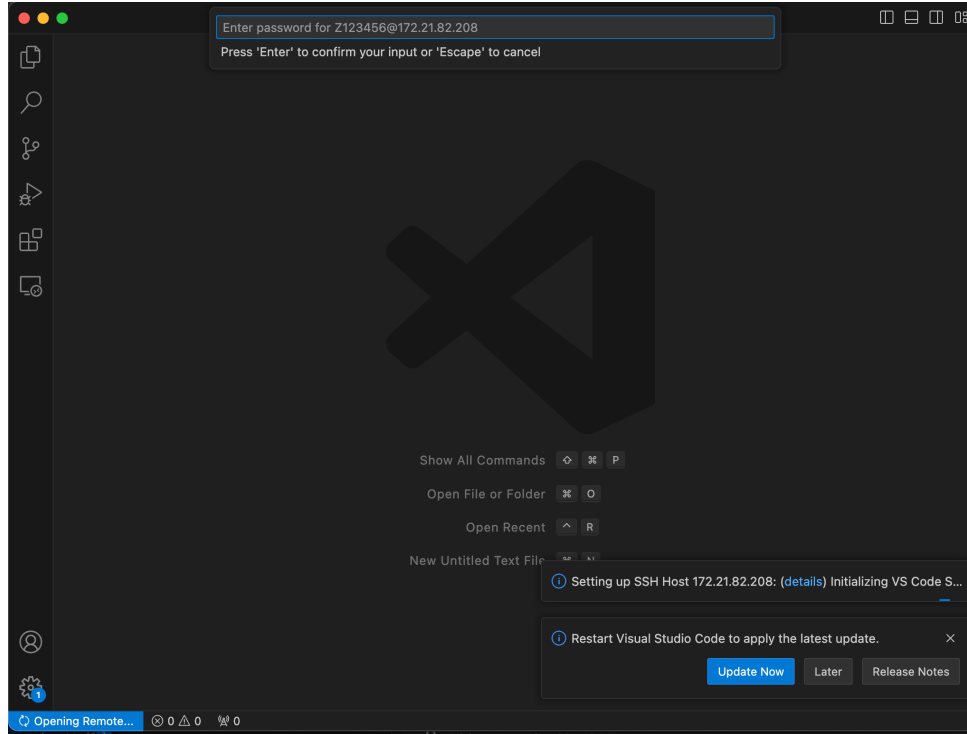

3. select add new host if it's first use

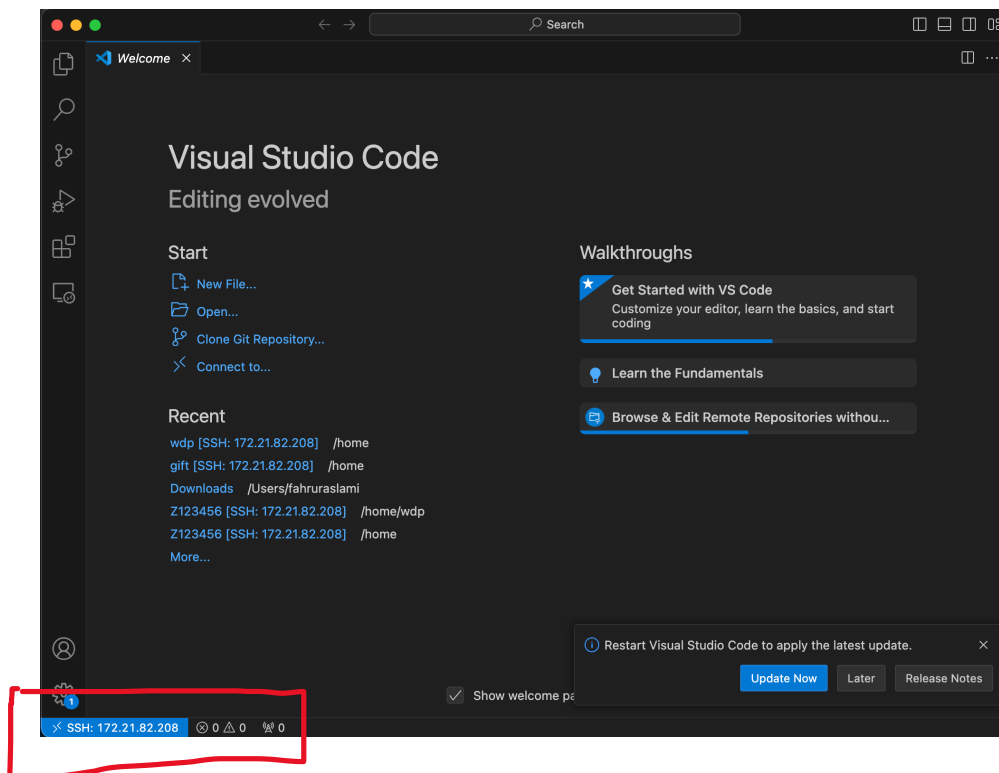

4. Type your ID that already given on the slack, following the ip server, example:
Z123456@172.21.82.208

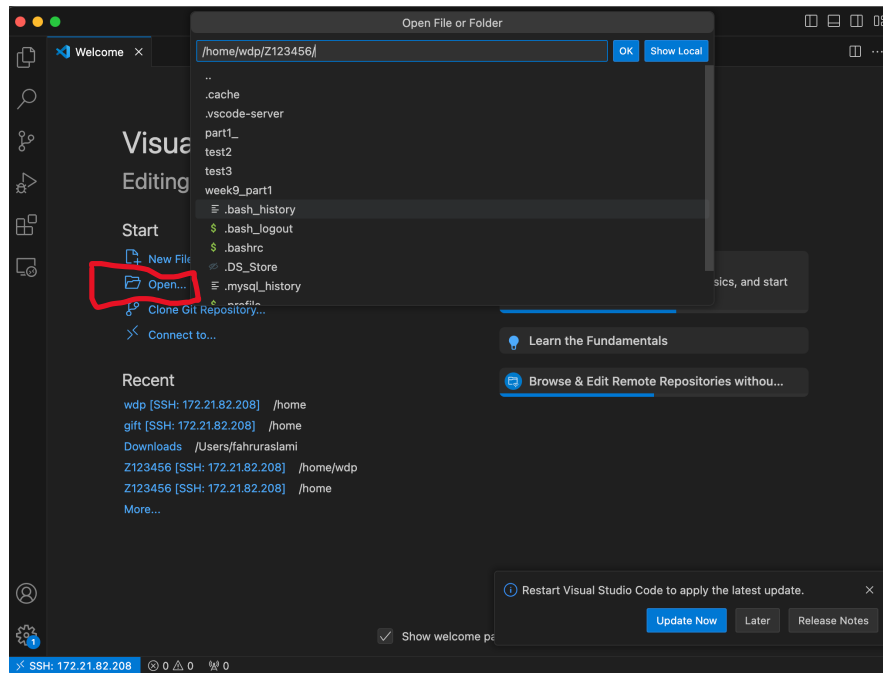

5. Enter your password

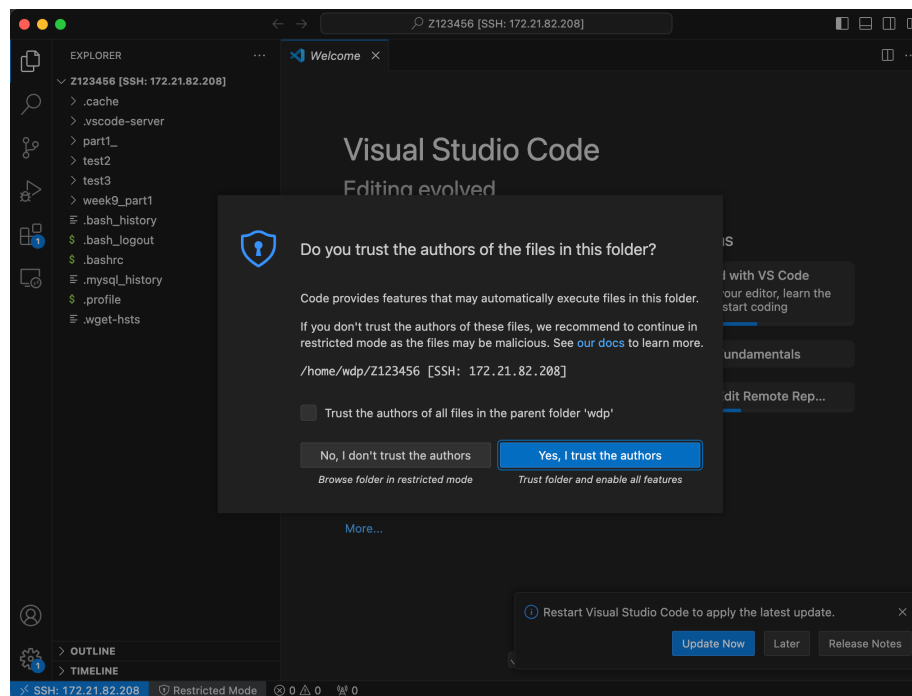

6. If the connection with the server is success, this page will appear,

7. Open your file, by choose red circle, and click OK.

8. If this dialogue is appear, choose “Yes, I trust the authors”

9. You can start code, copy, paste, and edit your code as well